Dear Professor Dr Ender Yarsan,

It is my great pleasure to inform you that the President of the World Veterinary Association (WVA) Dr F. Kechrid together with the Director General of the World Organisation for Animal Health (OIE) Dr B. Vallat have selected your application for World Veterinary Day Award 2012 as the winning one.

First of all I wish to congratulate you and your team of the Turkish Veterinary Medical Association and the Veterinary Pharmacology and Toxicology Association-Turkey with this succes.

The winner will officially be announced during the opening session of the OIE General Session on Sunday afternoon in Paris, and I ask you not to spread the news before Sunday afternoon.

Another question regards the presentation of the price.

Please can you let me know if you or a representative of the organisation already planned to be in Paris?

Another option would be that the price will be handed over to an official of the Turkish delegation to the OIE, who can than forward it to you.

Looking forward to hearing from you by e-mail or telephone,

with kind regards,

Jan Vaarten
